OPNAV INSTRUCTION 13800.1

From: Chief of Naval Operations

Subj: Identification of Ground Support Equipment (GSE) for mobilization of the Fourth Marine Air Wing (MAW)
aviation units

Ref: (a) NAVAIR Notice C5200, Reserve Programming Planning Document (RPPD) of 10 November 1976

1. Purpose. To promulgate policy for the identification of GSE dedicated to the Fourth MAW squadrons in the event of mobilization. Identification of all GSE is required in order to minimize the impact of deficiencies on the budget and to insure full use of all available assets.

2. Background. Upon mobilization the various Marine Air Groups (MAGs) which compose the Fourth Marine Air Wing are each assigned a Headquarters and Maintenance Squadron (H&MS) which is responsible for intermediate level maintenance for assigned aircraft squadrons. Intermediate and organizational level prepositioned GSE which may be available at Fleet and Reserve air stations and facilities will be provided to meet Marine Reserve mobilization requirements. Identification of these assets will enable the Fourth MAW to determine deficiencies for submission to higher authority as Prepositioned War Reserve Materiel Requirements (PWRMRs).

3. Scope. This instruction applies to GSE under the cognizance of Fleet Commanders in Chief, Chief of Naval Education and Training, Chief of Naval Reserve, and Commander Naval Air Systems Command.

4. Equipment Applicability. GSE to be reported to CNAVRLS for program planning and budgeting purposes:

a. Excess GSE that may be available to CNAVRES from Fleet or Reserve activities which can be used to fill Fourth MAW mobilization requirements.

b. GSE currently allocated to sole use of the Marine Reserves at Fleet and Naval Reserve activities both organizational and intermediate levels.

c. Applicable GSE at Fleet activities used for common support of Fleet and Marine Reserve units and which can be transferred with the Marine Reserve unit upon mobilization to meet their M-Day requirements.

d. Applicable GSE at Naval Reserve air stations and facilities used for common support of Navy and Marine Reserve units and which can be transferred with Marine Reserve units upon mobilization.

e. Common GSE located at Fleet and Naval Reserve air stations and facilities used to support Fourth MAW units will be identified and dedicated to the Marine Reserve units on a pro-rata share of onboard assets. To determine this pro-rata share each item must be considered on a case-by-case basis based on allowances and on-hand assets.

f. GSE assets located at CNET stations supporting Marine Reserve tenants, which could be provided reserve units upon mobilization.

5. Action. Addressees submit a mobilization asset report annually by 1 June to CNAVRES (Code 320) for consolidation and forwarding to COMNAVAIRSYSCOM (Code 417) by 1 August. The report will list those assets which are available to support Fourth MAW units identified in reference (a). The report is to include all GSE as described in paragraph 4. COMNAVAIRSYSCOM is to initiate appropriate reporting procedures to implement this instruction.

6. Reports. Report Symbol OPNAV 13800-2 is assigned to the reporting requirements of this instruction.
